Chart Talk

La sécheresse estivale des dernières semaines semble enfin toucher à sa fin, avec pas moins de 11 nouveautés dans le PlayRight top 100 cette semaine ! Une neuvième semaine en première position pour 'Chaussures Roses' de TeddyBear, qui figure aussi dans le top 50 avec deux autres titres : 'Tout Va Bien' (40 à 38) et 'Enfin Bon' (52 à 50). Typh Barrow décroche à nouveau une meilleure position en dixième semaine, avec 'On My Shoulders' (9 à 7). Une chanteuse qui se contente d'un prénom, Angèle, sortira début octobre son premier album depuis 'Nonante-Cinq', il y a cinq ans, sous le titre 'Instinct'. La Bruxelloise adoptée par Paris en dévoile maintenant un nouvel avant-goût électropop avec 'Une Seule Vie', notre meilleure entrée directement à la 11e place. Autre nom à succès international ayant ses racines à Bruxelles, Jay P grimpe de 42 à 31 avec 'So Into You'. C'est une bonne semaine pour les chanteuses prénommées Laura : DILI alias Laura Diliberto passe de 58 à 42 avec 'Poison' et LAUD, née Laura Duymelinck, gagne pas moins de 20 places, de 67 à 47, avec 'Mr. Mister'.

Caroline Eloy, ou tout simplement Ce'Loy, fait son entrée à la 87e place avec l'estival 'By Your Side', porté par un beat électronique reggae nonchalant qui ne dépareillerait pas dans le répertoire d'Ace Of Base. Elle a reçu l'aide de deux hommes affichant chacun plus de 30 ans de carrière : Bruno Sanchioni (The Age Of Love, B.B.E.) et Luke Mornay (membre de Ruff & Jam et remixeur notamment pour Kylie Minogue, Kim Wilde, Bananarama et, eh oui, Ace Of Base). La Bruxelloise Elisa Marra puise son inspiration chez Alicia Keys, Charlotte Cardin et Rosalía et livre avec le midtempo 'Allo Baby', nouveau à la 88e place, un bel exemple de son r&b francophone teinté d'une touche d'afro. Les amateurs des années 2000 reconnaîtront dans la mélodie le hit 'I Know What You Want' de Busta Rhymes et Mariah Carey sorti en 2003.

Avec déjà une 17e apparition dans le PlayRight top 100 au cours des 16 derniers mois, DYSTINCT ne laisse désormais plus personne passer devant lui. L'Anversois d'origine marocaine revient à la 89e place avec 'Katkouta', à nouveau entièrement en solo après plusieurs collaborations, et glisse quelques mots d'arabe sur un beat entraînant. Nous clôturons avec deux singer-songwriters, à commencer par Simon Hainaux alias Pimon, qui pose l'interrogation lancinante 'Ange Ou Démon' sur un beat synthpop entraînant à la 91e place. Il est suivi une place plus bas, à la 92e, par Amaury Massion, mieux connu sous le nom de Lylac, qui signe lui-même la composition et la production du passionnel 'Les Histoires D'amour', une chanson aux accents tziganes extraite de l'album 'Suivre L'étoile' sorti mi-mai. Outre le chant et la guitare acoustique de Lylac, on y entend également du violon, du fiddle et du violoncelle !
